

These 10 new hotels and renovations will make you want to book a trip to Boston

By Wendy O'Dea
Travel Expert
DECEMBER 18, 2021

Right now, the best reason to visit Beantown may be to check in to one of the abundance of new and recently-renovated hotels that are grabbing all the attention. Here are 10 worth considering.

Photo courtesy of Architectural Team/Binyan Studios

Raffles Boston Back Bay Hotel & Residences

Raffles – a well-established luxury brand in many parts of the world – will be making an impressive U.S. debut when it opens in Boston's Back Bay in 2022. With 147 guest rooms and 146 residences, the 35-story high rise overlooking Copley Square will also include a multi-story sky lobby, state-of-the-art spa and a number of dining options, including a sky bar and speakeasy.